Summer Reading Program

This year's Library Summer Reading Program will feature activities during the months of June and July:

- Monday, June 6 Summer Reading sign-ups begin at the Library
- Friday, June 10 US Forest Service "Leave No Trace" 1 pm Weston Park
- Wednesday, June 15 Traveling Lantern Theater 10 am Community Church
- Friday, June 24 "Create a Journal" 1 pm Weston Park
- Friday, July 1 "Backcountry Cooking and Games" 1 pm Weston Park
- Friday, July 8 "An Afternoon With a Fish Scientist" 1 pm Weston Park

- Friday, July 15 "Salmon Painting" with Miss Pat 1 pm Weston Park
- Friday, July 22 "Ice Cream Party" 1 pm Weston Park

Kids ages preschool through 6th grade can pick up a reading log, and keep track of time spent reading. They can check in weekly at the library to earn incentives. It's simple!

Reading Road Trip!

This year's Summer Reading theme is "Read Beyond the Beaten Path." Kids and adults can explore Umatilla and Morrow County Libraries on a Reading Road Trip! Sign up at the library and pick up your starter kit. Then use the map provided in your kit to visit libraries in Umatilla and Morrow Counties. Collect tags from each library, and enter to win a gift basket. Sponsored in part by Umatilla County Special Library District.
