

Read Across America

Wednesday, March 2 2022 is National Read Across America Day, a day to celebrate our favorite activity, reading! The day was established by the National Education Association (NEA) in 1998 to help get kids excited about reading. On National Read Across America Day students, teachers, parents, and community members around the nation come together to read books and celebrate the joy of reading.

The day occurs each year on the birthday of beloved children's book author Dr. Seuss, so a perfect way to celebrate is to read one his famous tales, like One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Fish., or Green Eggs and Ham.

Read Across America Day will be celebrated at our library all day on March 2 with sign ups for Dolly Parton's Imagination Library for preschoolers. Everyone is invited to get a library card, check out a library book, and enjoy a tasty treat. Kids can take home a free book.

Join us at the library on National Read Across America Day, Wednesday, March 2 2022!

Photos Added to Archive

In 2020 we created an online archive of our entire historic photo collection, which as a result has a link on our library website. In the past two years more historic photos have been donated to the library. Thanks to a grant from the C.S. Jackson fund we have restored these photos, and added about a dozen more images to the archive. You can take a look at these on the library website, www.westonpubliclibrary.com.
