FOWL Book Sale

Come and shop at the Friends of Weston Library annual used book sale, held Saturday, October 29 during Weston's Potato Show and Fall Festival. Gently used books and other media will be on display in the downstairs club room of Memorial Hall, 210 East Main Street, Weston. FOWL members are excited to resume the indoor sale after a two year pause. While you are in Weston, be sure to check out the Potato Show and Fall Festival, which will be upstairs at Memorial Hall.

Book Sale volunteers will be ready for business at 9 am on sale day. The sale will be open until 4 pm, with the "bag sale" beginning at 3 pm. This is an opportunity to fill up an entire bag with books for just $1.

FOWL is a nonprofit organization, formed in the year 2000. FOWL's mission is the support of Weston Public Library. These hard working folks promote our library, and help finance special projects, programs, and upgrades to our facility. This year FOWL sponsored the installation of new library carpet.

To donate books for the sale, call the library at 541-566-2378 prior to Tuesday, October 25 to make arrangements..

First Potato Show 100 Years Ago

Excerpt from Weston Leader Newspaper, Nov. 3, 1922

"The first Umatilla County Potato Show, held Saturday at Weston in Memorial Hall has passed into history. It was the first event of the sort ever staged in the county, but opinions are general that it will not be the last. The success of the show surpassed the expectations of its sponsors. It brought a large throng of people, especially in the afternoon, and the exhibits were comprehensive, attractive, and highly creditable, in view of the fact this was King Spud's initial public appearance in the Blue Mountain Empire."
