

Read Across America

March 2 is National Read Across America Day, a day to celebrate our favorite activity. The day was established by the National Education Association (NEA) in 1998 to help get kids excited about reading.

The day occurs each year on the birthday of beloved children's book author Dr. Seuss, so a perfect way to celebrate is to read one his famous tales, like One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Fish, or Green Eggs and Ham. We have most of the books written by Dr. Seuss in our library for you to check out.

Don't have kids in your house? Just grab whatever you are currently reading and think about people all across the country who are doing likewise on this day.

On National Read Across America Day, students, teachers, parents, and community members around the nation come together to read books and celebrate the joy of reading — join us!

New Library Sign!

Have you noticed our new library sign? The old sign, which served us well for many years had seen better days. It was time for an update. This sign was expertly made by local woodworker Mike Dowd in memory of Jolynn Lieuallen, who passed away last year. The new sign is clearly legible from the street, and features the year our Weston Library was established, 1912.
