Friends of Weston Library Meeting

Friends of Weston Library (FOWL) will host their annual membership meeting Monday, April 24 at 7 pm. The event will take place in Weston Community Church Fellowship Hall, 206 North Water Street in Weston.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Ellen Morris Bishop. With a Ph.D. in geology, Pacific Northwest landscapes— their geologic history and ecosystems are her specialty. She has written a number of nonfiction books, including “In Search of Ancient Oregon: A Geological and Natural History,” “Living with Thunder: Exploring the Geologic Past, Present, and Future of Pacific Northwest Landscapes,” and “Hiking Oregon’s Geology.” She will be sharing with us her belief that more than any other science, geology is tied with story. Her mission is to unveil these stories through images and understandable words that tell the science in rich and compelling detail.

The evening will include a short business meeting and refreshments. FOWL members and non-members are welcome to attend this fun event.. Hope to see you there!

Joining FOWL

Are you interested in becoming a FOWL member? It’s easy, free, and FOWL welcomes new members. There are no dues, and all donations are tax deductible, since FOWL is a 501(c)(3) organization. This group has accomplished many things in 23 years, including improvements to the library facility, programs for children and adults, and providing funds for several matching grants. FOWL sponsors the annual used book sale in October. Each Pioneer Picnic you will see these enthusiastic library supporters in the parade. This is a gratifying and low commitment way to volunteer in our community. Stop by the library soon and ask for details.
